OCCASIONALLY Whirligig of Time

runs amuck, toppling over the little affairs and pet projects of our daily lives—knocking down our "houses of cards"—wrecking the routine of home or office or store or factory.

But, happily, since the advent of Tee-Dee Want advertising, the fearsome little "whirligig" has lost half of its terrors. Its fantastic tricks do not so often spell disaster as in the days before we had learned to harness "publicity."

Now-a-times, when the "whirligig" kidnaps a servant, a tenant, a partner—when a plan is knocked about our ears—when the "whirligig" begins its traditional revenges, delivering packages of trouble C. O. D., we pull ourselves out from under the wreckage and begin to write Tee-Dee Want Ads. And after a little time we find that publicity has repaired the breakage, and that all is well. Our plans prosper—our routine is restored—and we are ready for the next visit of "the whirligig," ready for good fortune or—another smash.
